

State of South Carolina

Governor's Proclamation

WHEREAS, South Carolina's sixteen technical colleges provide quality learning and skill development opportunities for residents throughout the state; and

WHEREAS, Phi Theta Kappa, the International Honor Society of the Two-Year College, has recognized twenty-four technical college students from the Palmetto State for their outstanding records of academic achievement and service to their schools and local communities; and

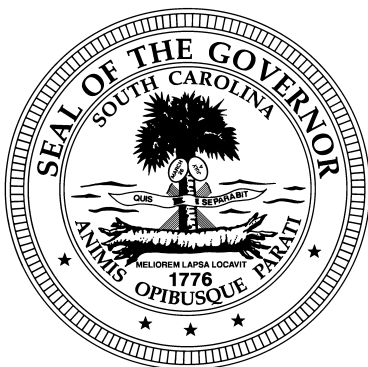

WHEREAS, the South Carolina Technical College System will honor these students at an awards ceremony on March 8, 2006; and

WHEREAS, all South Carolinians can take pride in the positive national attention these students have brought to the Palmetto State through their commitment to personal excellence.

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Mark Sanford, Governor of the Great State of South Carolina, do hereby proclaim March 8, 2006, as

throughout the state and encourage all South Carolinians to join me in congratulating these students on their accomplishments while recognizing our technical colleges for their many contributions to ensuring quality learning and skill development opportunities for our residents
